Imagine the Look, Create the Dream...

Dr. Agarwal and Dr. Maloney Publish Novel Technique on Muscle Transfer to the Lips in “The Archives of Facial Plastic Surgery”

ARCHIVES OF FACIAL PLASTIC SURGERY

In the March/April 2010 issue of “The Archives of Facial Plastic Surgery,” Drs. Agarwal and Maloney published the first ever report on the technique of Sternocleidomastoid Muscle Transfer to the Lips.

Dr. Maloney has been performing this procedure since 1995, and Dr. Agarwal has been performing this procedure since 2005. The procedure utilizes your own tissue to augment the lips, resulting in a long lasting, natural feel and appearance to the lips.
