RENAISSANCE REVIEW

Imagine the Look, Create the Dream...

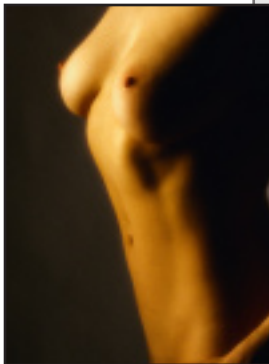

Wash away summer sun damage with the Arctic Laser Wash!

There are several types of laser resurfacing procedures. The hallmarks of laser resurfacing include removing surface layers of sun damaged skin, while directly heating the underlying collagen in order to tighten it.

The Arctic Laser Wash is an office based procedure performed by our board certified facial plastic surgeons. It has a one week recovery and is done with oral valium and local anesthetic. This is an ideal procedure to wash away sun damage from the summer.

Breast Augmentation

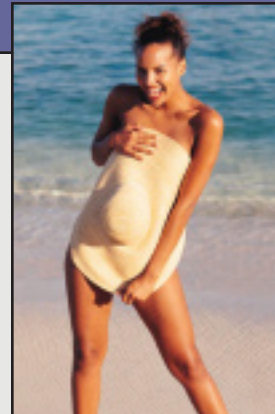

For the woman who feels that her breasts are too small, or not properly contoured, cosmetic enhancement may be the answer. Breast Augmentation can increase breast size and improve the body's overall harmony. Dr. Boemi will meet with you for a one hour long personal consultation to discuss your goals. He will then plan with you the most effective technique and the most appropriate implant to achieve a good result. This will include the size of the implant, which implant, saline or memory gel, and also select the preferred approach to insert the implant, above or below the muscle.

These procedures are performed under general anesthesia in a fully accredited ambulatory surgery center, and most patients are able to return to work within three to four days. To learn more about Luciano Boemi, MD, FACS, please visit www.plasticsurgeonofnaples.com
