The Mommie Makeover

Dr. Boemi specialized in comprehensive body plastic surgery!

Many changes occur in a woman's body after pregnancy and breast feeding. Sagging breasts, flabby tummies and loss of tummy muscle are common reasons for women to decide on a makeover. The mommy makeover generally combines abdominoplasty (tummy tuck) with breast lift, and breast augmentation. An increasing number of moms are also requesting liposuction for body sculpting, face-lift, and eyelid surgery. Many times these procedures are followed up with anti-aging remedies such as Botox Cosmetics and Juvederm. By listening to your goals we can best determine which combination of services will deliver your desired result. A personal consultation with Dr. Boemi aided by imaging can give you a better idea of what your body will look like after surgery.

Please visit Dr. Boemi's website: www.plasticsurgeonofnaples.com and receive our informed patient discount, 50% off your personal consultation ($75.00 value)

State of the Art Eyebrow Restoration

Many women lose their eyebrow hair, especially in the outer half, as they age. The most common reasons for this include aggressive plucking, age, laser hair removal, and trauma.

There are two options to restore eyebrows: permanent hair transplantation or permanent make-up. The ideal treatment would combine these two modalities. Single hair transplantation takes place in the office, one hair at a time. This can then be followed by permanent make-up, to really enhance the result. Together, Dr. Agarwal and Lisa Gorman provide state of the art eyebrow restoration. Call today to schedule your consult.
