RENAISSANCE REVIEW

Imagine the Look, Create the Dream...

Dear John,

Aesthetic Surgery Center staff excited to usher in a new era...touring the new facility, slated for completion mid-August 2016

Our team at ASC recently took an exciting tour of our new future home. Construction began in November 2015 on our new facility, which will feature a larger space for our growing practice (Dr. Agarwal, Dr. Maloney and Dr. Gill), a full operating room for cosmetic surgery procedures, and a more private spa environment. We are tentatively planning on relocating mid-August 2016. The office is located at 1175

Creekside Parkway, Naples, FL 34108. It is very close to our existing location, where our practice has been and flourished over the past 22 years.

As the time approaches, we will keep you updated monthly as to the building progress and exact move-in date. We are very excited about this new era for our practice! We will strive to ensure that this new facility reflects our practice philosophy in providing top notch plastic surgery care to all of our patients.
